

Congratulations
To Jubilarians

STUFF

Pumas Face
Xavier
On Sept. 15
(See Page 3)

Vol. 20

St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Indiana, May 9, 1957

No. 11

5 SJ Seniors Receive Special Grants

Band to Feature Variety In Annual Spring Concert

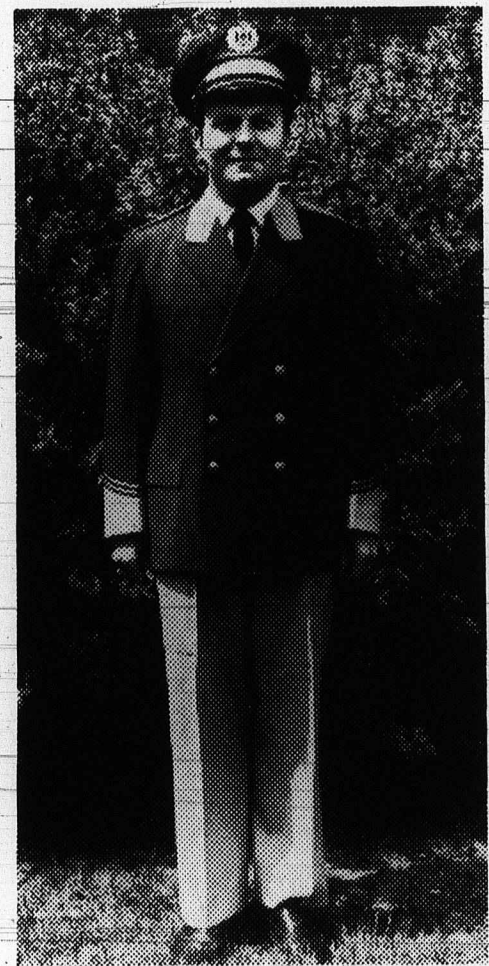

The Band will present its Spring Concert, Monday, May 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the Collegeville Auditorium. Although Mr. Bernard E. Qubeck, Band Director, has not yet arranged the numbers to be played into their program order, he says that the concert will contain music which should appeal to everybody.

Highlight of the evening will be an appearance by Mr. Bohumir Kryl, internationally renowned conductor, trumpeter, and violinist. Mr. Kryl, a former member of John Philip Sousa's Band, will guest-direct the Band in one or two selections.

Among the numbers tentatively planned for the concert are Cole Porter's "Beguine the Beguine," Leroy Anderson's "Blue Tango," Lecuona's "Malaguena," and a symphonic band arrangement of tunes from Jerome Kern's "Showboat."

In a heavier vein, the Band will perform Tchaikovsky's "Marche Slave," Prokofiev's "Marche," from "The Love for Three Oranges," Strauss's Overture to "Die Fleidermaus," and the introduction to the third act of Wagner's "Lohengrin."

Other numbers tentatively planned for the concert include "In a Persian Market," "Joshua," and the concert march, "Hall of Fame." There will also be music by Bach, Gallagher models new band uniforms.

Phase Plans Largest Issue

This year's Phase, a 160 page issue, will be the biggest yet, according to John White, editor. The theme of the annual will be "Wide, Wide World."

The pictures will be in Terra-cotta, the same type used by the Chicago Daily News in their Saturday edition.

Phase will also feature exclusive pictures and news of the Aluminum Bowl.

This year's editors are: John White, Editor-in-Chief; Dave Carey, Sports Editor; Joe Borgra, Layout, and Bernie Balas, Business Manager.

Herbert, and Sullivan.

The Spring Concert will also mark the first occasion on which the Band's new uniforms will be worn. The uniforms include cardinal coat with gray trim and gray pants with red stripe. The Band has also obtained a second set of uniforms, the powder blue Summer formals which they wore for the outdoor "pops" concert on Parents' Day.

Bena Defeats Stewart; Galvin Junior Veep

Marty Bena, John Galvin, Joe Chrustowski, and Tim Faylor are the newly-elected officers of next year's junior class.

Bena was elected president by receiving 129 votes to 63 for his opponent, Bob Stewart. A native of Waukegan, Ill., Bena has been active in the Don Bosco Club, inter-hall committees, and the Chicago Club.

Galvin Tops Evans

In the race for vice-president John Galvin beat John Evans 124 votes to 73. Galvin, who has been on inter-hall and dance committees, is from Paducah, Ky.

Only one vote separated the two candidates for treasurer, Joe Chrustowski and Norm Lozen, after the first ballot. By the election rules one-half of the total vote plus one was needed to win, and that one vote went to a write-in candidate. The next day, May 2, a run-off was held in which Chrustowski won 115 to 99.

Faylor Wins Run-Off

The new junior class treasurer is from Whiting, Ind. His activities include membership in the weight lifting club, the Lake County Club, and many intramural activities.

Another run-off was held for secretary between Tim Faylor and Tom Uecker after Roger Scott was eliminated on the first ballot. Faylor collected 134 votes to win over his opponent's 80. He is from Fort Wayne, Ind. and a member of the varsity football team and the Fort Wayne Club.

214 out of a possible 240 sophomores voted for a healthy turn-out of 89%.

Fr. Robbins Attends Registrars' Meeting

Rev. Charles J. Robbins, registrar of St. Joseph's college, attended the 43rd annual meeting of the American Association of Collegiate and Admissions Officers held in Denver recently.

More than 500 admissions officials and registrars from colleges and universities throughout the country attended the meeting.

The program of the conference was concerned with better admissions and registrations methods to meet the increasing number of students at the college and university level.

Besides hearing a number of outstanding speakers in this field the delegates participated in a series of workshops to discuss their mutual problems and to exchange ideas for solving them.

3 Seniors Receive Fellowships; 2 More Awarded Scholarships

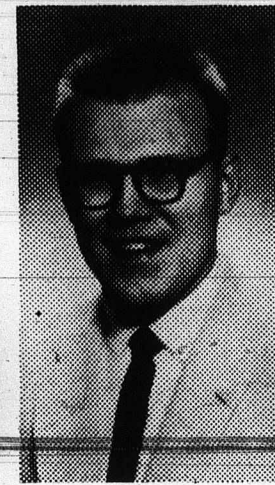

M. Fisher

R. Flynn

D. Neville

A. Stryck

C. Vietzen

"Weekend With Duke" Highlights Social Calendar of School Year

The biggest social event of the school year will take place this weekend when Duke Ellington and his fine orchestra will play for an estimated 225 couples at the junior prom. Final preparations which are almost completed will turn the fieldhouse into a coliseum for a "Roman Holiday."

Murals and columns depicting a coliseum will be placed around the dance floor. A 40 foot arch will be situated over the bandstand.

There will be refreshments at both the Revels and "Roman Holiday."

Housing must be checked and approved by the Prom Committee. Private houses will not be used until all hotels and motels are filled.

The Prom weekend schedule and the necessary costs of the weekend are as follows:

Friday night will be the Student Council Revels in the Rec Hall, 9:00 to 1:00. Saturday afternoon there will be a social in the Rec Hall. Saturday night there will be a steak dinner in the dining room, and then "Roman Holiday" in the coliseum from 9:00 to 2:00 a.m.

Probable Costs

A ticket to Roman Holiday is $10, a ticket to the SC Revels is $3, tux is $7.60, meals will be approximately $5, and housing for two nights is approximately $4.

Seniors have won teaching fellowships and two others a scholarship. The fellowships include remission of tuition and fees and financial grants for room and board. The winners include:

Charles Vietzen, a mathematics major from Oak Park, Ill., was awarded a fellowship to Notre Dame, where he will teach six hours of lower level math, in addition to carrying a class-load of nine hours.

Skorupa Goes to Detroit

Robert Skorupa, a mathematics major from Lansing, Ill., was awarded a fellowship to the University of Detroit. He will teach six hours, and carry a class load of nine hours.

Don Neville, a geology major from Dwight, Ill., will go to the University of Wisconsin. He will carry eight hours and teach ten hours of lower geology courses.

Flynn To Attend Chicago

Dick Flynn, Chicago, has won a scholarship to the University of Chicago. The scholarship will enable him to take 9 courses towards a Masters degree in accounting.

Marvin Fisher, an accounting major from River Grove, Illinois, was awarded a partial scholarship to the University of Michigan. The scholarship awarded was from the Paton fund.

The fellowships and scholarships were awarded by the various Universities on the merits of the applicants' marks and graduate records plus the recommendation of faculty members. Applications were made by the students themselves for the fellowships.

Hagearty, Warner, Ryan Share Honors In Rifle Match

James Hagearty, a sophomore from Kankakee, Ill., won the pistol championship trophy and the National Rifle Association Club Member's medal in the first annual rifle meet held on April 28. The NRA's Club Member's medal was awarded Hagearty for being the top pistol marksman at Saint Joseph's. The 2nd place medal was awarded to Mike Ryan and 3rd place to Paul Parks.

In the Class "B" rifle event, Pete Warner won the High Prone Shooter medal, Bob Filice won the High Kneeling Shooter medal, and Ron Knaus won the High Standing Shooter medal.

In the Class "A" Rifle competition, Mike Ryan won the rifle championship and the NRA's Club Member's medal for being the top rifle marksman at St. Joseph's. Ron Weiland won second place, and James Hagearty won third place.

Jazz-Calypso Concert Rocks Student Body

by Ray Malik

On April 29, the St. Joe auditorium rocked with the strange combination of sounds resulting from a one-act play, a jazz combo, and a calypso group. This program, put together by the Student Council was something new in entertainment for the student body.

A group of students from Whiting high school presented G. E. Callahan's play, "Afraid of the Dark."

After this enjoyable performance, the Mellotones, a sextet of girls, presented a program of songs including, "I Love a Parade" and "Blue Moon."

The middle part of the program featured the ever popular St. Joe jazz combo, belting out their likable and stompable Dixieland rhythms. "The joint was swinging" when Kev (Krupa) Gallagher pounded out a drum solo which brought the roof down. The other members of the group, Joe Matlon—piano, Jim Deegan—Bass, Art Kurek—trumpet, and Jim Tegtmeyer—trombone, did a highly commendable job also.

The program was brought to a close with a near-professional performance by the Whiting group. It was a medley of calypso numbers, featuring Jack Taylor, teacher of Spanish at the school. Mr. Taylor's voice had a professional sound to it as he sang such numbers as "Cindy," "The Banana Boat Song," "Jamaica Farewell," and "Star-o." He accompanied himself on the guitar while his high school students added the background sounds of bongo-drums, snare drums, basses, and humming.

250 Attend Jubilee Fete

Two hundred and fifty guests, including 65 priests, attended the 25th anniversary of the ordinations of Fr. Cletus Dirksen and Fr. Albert Wuest. The Solemn Pontifical Mass was offered by Bishop Andrew G. Grutka, first Bishop of Gary; Fr. Dirksen and Fr. Wuest were deacon and subdeacon. It was also the first celebration of the feast of St. Joseph the Worker.

Among the guests were the two brothers of both Fr. Dirksen and Fr. Wuest: Frs. Aloys and Richard Dirksen, and Frs. Karl and Robert Wuest, all members of the Precious Blood. Fr. Aloys Dirksen is a past president of St. Joseph's.

Fr. Raphael Gross, president of St. Joseph's, preached the jubilee sermon. In it he pointed out the fittingness of the priest as teacher.

After the Mass the jubilarians were feted at a banquet given in their honor in the school cafeteria. Fr. Isidore McCarthy acted as master of ceremonies.

Cub Scouts Visit St. Joe

On Saturday, May 4, a group of Cub Scouts from St. Joan of Arc parish in Indianapolis, Ind. visited St. Joe's campus on their annual outing. Fifteen fathers of the boys accompanied the pack.

A tour of the campus was arranged for them by Fr. Baird, Admissions Counselor.

Mark E. Kelly, a 1931 graduate of St. Joseph's, sponsored the scout outing.

Editor Seeks

Student Opinion

The celebration of last week of the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker gave us some food for thought concerning Stuff. By "us" is meant some of the staff members and our moderator Fr. Hinton.

What prompted our thinking was the first class rating given Stuff by the University of Minnesota's journalism department. In its comments the University referred to the name Stuff, and suggested that a more suitable name could be found. This suggestion coincides with a feeling that some of the present staff and the past editors of Stuff have had.

As mentioned above, the Feast Day of Saint Joseph the Worker provided us with an idea. Why not change the name of the paper to The Worker? This name has a few advantages which the name Stuff lacks.

In the first place, it is a name that can be associated with the college. As the Feast day of St. Joseph the Worker grows, and especially since St. Joseph himself is known as a carpenter and a worker, the tie-in between the name of the paper and the school would be a natural.

Secondly, the name would characterize what we like to think is the attitude of the staff. Without patting ourselves on the back too much, there is a lot of work that goes into the paper, and so we would like to see a name that represents that work.

There are other reasons but the ones stated above are the main ones. The change is a distinct possibility, and we would be interested in knowing our readers' opinions.

Line Crashers Break Pumaville Chow Lines

by Ray Malik

Things have been getting pretty bad around Pumaville lately, what with all the line-breaking going on down in the cafeteria. Just yesterday I was first in line and almost ended up missing dinner. I just managed to get in at 12:29 and 45 seconds and the only way I made it was to sneak in line myself. Those crashers are pretty clever fellows and they use a variety of dirty tricks to pull off some of their dishonorable "sneaks."

First there's the classic excuse—"I got practice tonight." It seems that when there is a particularly long line everyone has practice all of a sudden. There's glee club, tennis, baseball, football, basketball, chess, checkers, model railroads, radio stations, plays, test stealing, sacking out, drinking, etc.—this list can be extended indefinitely. This seems to be the prevalent type of crasher here on campus.

One of the famous types of crasher only operates when there are girls around for a mixer. He rushes into the chow hall, grabs an unknown girl by the arm, says "C'mon Baby, lets eat," and proceeds to make his own line. Pretty soon he is followed by a whole group of other guys who see the advantage in this situation. Usually, after they have used the girl for their advantage they won't even be so nice as to introduce themselves and end up making the girls go for seconds for milk.

Then there's the guy who doesn't have the guts to crash the line from the outside but starts from the back and sneaks through it rather quickly to the front. He's sort of an undercover man who taps you on the left shoulder and then tip-toes around your right side when you turn around to see who it is. He also may operate as the squirming, dancing, wiggling guy who has three friends about 20 feet ahead of him and makes his way through line with a group of steps that Jose Limon would be proud to achieve.

Don't think these line crashers aren't intellectual either. They come up to you with some profound question like, "Hey, what time is it?" or "Nice weather isn't it?" or "What kind of grade did you get in that

DMU Notes:

Seminarians Aid Missions For 35 Years

by Ralph Schneider

The Dwenger Mission Unit (DMU) is now in its 35th year of service to the missions throughout the world. The DMU is a study-and-work organization composed of the seminarians of Xavier Hall. Its purpose is to study various phases of mission work and to aid the missions directly.

The Unit was founded in 1922 by Fr. George Pax, C.P.P.S., at St. Charles Seminary and named in honor of Bishop Dwenger, first bishop of the Society of the Precious Blood. It was transferred to St. Joseph's College in 1925, and Fr. Rufus Esser became its first moderator here. Fr. Charles Rueve is the present moderator.

Composed of Six Clubs

During its 35-year existence the members of the DMU have established various study-and-work clubs dealing with diverse subjects ranging from the liturgy of the Church to Communion. The Unit, which meets monthly, is at present composed of six clubs: Liturgy, Mission Correspondence, Stamp, Rosary, Redistribution, and Grotto.

The Liturgy Club meet weekly to discuss different facets of the Church's liturgy pertinent to the season. Often an invited guest or a club member speaks on a topic such as the Rite or Ordination or the Mass.

The work of the club consists in preparing the daily Ordo-board and posting some devotional idea for each day's feast.

Sends Letters and Bouquets

The Mission Correspondence Club attempts to aid the Precious Blood missionaries spiritually. Letters accompanied by spiritual bouquets, voluntarily offered by the seminarians, are sent to Precious Blood Fathers at home and in Chile. In their return letters the priests express their sincere appreciation and in some instances even cite vivid examples of conversions wrought through the power of prayer.

Packaging and mailing of pamphlets, religious articles, magazines, books, etc., is the principal work of the Redistribution Club. The material comes from faithful contributors of the United States. It is only through their cooperation that the club can exist and operate. This year alone it has mailed nearly one-half ton of goods to missions and missionaries at home and abroad, and thus has contacted all the continents of the world.

John Herakovich, Whiting, Ind.

A good band adds attraction to the prom. Sure it's expensive but you get good music from guys like Duke Ellington and Ray Anthony. Let's keep the patrons. It would really take away from the enjoyment of the prom if the top rate performers didn't play. Norm Lozen, Mt. Clemens, Mich.

I am in favor of any action that will lower the expenses of the prom and thereby reduce the cost per bid. However, being that the prom is a big affair at St. Joe, or any college, during its scholastic year I believe that it should be remembered not only by the Revels but by the Dance. If you are going to do a thing up big then why go half way? It is common belief that with a big band you pay only for their name. But what got them the big name is their music.

It's like buying a car. If you want transportation then you buy a Ford. If you want luxury, beauty, comfort, and transportation, then you buy a Cadillac or Imperial.

The Vets Club sells popcorn, hot dogs and pop right down the line to chewing gum at the basketball, football, and baseball games and always seem to be giving a bingo. The Commerce Club even had a raffle. Why can't the Junior Class have some projects or project whereby it can raise money for the prom, drop the patrons, and still retain the big-named bands.

You don't get something for nothing. The more you put into your prom the more you get out of it and the better memories you will have of it.

Leonard Kasperowicz, Hamtramck, Mich.

I think it would be a fine idea, since in sending us to college, they have enough financial burdens. Also, students should be able to create their own atmosphere at the dances, and not be dependent upon an expensive name band to do it. By obtaining a less expensive orchestra, and by roughing it I believe a better time would be had by all.

Kevin Hensley, Munster, Indiana

Comes time to plan for a college prom and the big question that everyone wants to settle first is, "Who'll we get to play?" When the Junior class met to decide the issue this year, only the best in the business were considered. The sum of money agreed upon would buy the services of more than the Fire House Five plus Two. Before the Duke, Ralph Marterie was on top for two years in a row. Obviously the trend has been toward the spectaculars.

I think the band selected should fit the budget. This is just a little more profound than it seems at first glance. Any Prom committee knows roughly how much it can afford for each item.

The Pumas always favor the prestige of the name bands. Getting the best means more to a small college such as ours than to a big institution (a certain South Bend outfit for one). We are just a bit shy on party life around here and the spring whing-ding ought to cap the social season.

Letting that be right where it is, the question of patronage can be dubbed in on the issue. The money has to come from somewhere but is it advisable to saddle overburdened parents with another request for a contribution? "Aye, there's the rub."

It is fine to have the feast with all the trimmings but should the parents be patrons? Yes! Patronage is really necessary for it supplies the margin between the red and the black ink. Very few parents could resent a direct appeal from a student source, the prom committee. The letters are courteous and are carefully worded and the touch is only a buck. The very fact that the Prom is a student function and is handled as such disposes patrons favorably toward the cause.

St. Joe's Junior Classes have done a good job in the past and the present one is improving on that record. As long as we continue this policy, I think the bands and the patronage are here to stay.

What Do You Think?

by Dave Verdeyen

Each year at prom time letters are sent to our parents asking them to be patrons of our prom. What do you think of the idea of getting a less expensive orchestra and thereby cutting down expenses so patrons would not be necessary?

John Herakovich, Whiting, Ind.

A good band adds attraction to the prom. Sure it's expensive but you get good music from guys like Duke Ellington and Ray Anthony. Let's keep the patrons. It would really take away from the enjoyment of the prom if the top rate performers didn't play. Norm Lozen, Mt. Clemens, Mich.

I am in favor of any action that will lower the expenses of the prom and thereby reduce the cost per bid. However, being that the prom is a big affair at St. Joe, or any college, during its scholastic year I believe that it should be remembered not only by the Revels but by the Dance. If you are going to do a thing up big then why go half way? It is common belief that with a big band you pay only for their name. But what got them the big name is their music.

It's like buying a car. If you want transportation then you buy a Ford. If you want luxury, beauty, comfort, and transportation, then you buy a Cadillac or Imperial.

The Vets Club sells popcorn, hot dogs and pop right down the line to chewing gum at the basketball, football, and baseball games and always seem to be giving a bingo. The Commerce Club even had a raffle. Why can't the Junior Class have some projects or project whereby it can raise money for the prom, drop the patrons, and still retain the big-named bands.

You don't get something for nothing. The more you put into your prom the more you get out of it and the better memories you will have of it.

Leonard Kasperowicz, Hamtramck, Mich.

I think it would be a fine idea, since in sending us to college, they have enough financial burdens. Also, students should be able to create their own atmosphere at the dances, and not be dependent upon an expensive name band to do it. By obtaining a less expensive orchestra, and by roughing it I believe a better time would be had by all.

Kevin Hensley, Munster, Indiana

Comes time to plan for a college prom and the big question that everyone wants to settle first is, "Who'll we get to play?" When the Junior class met to decide the issue this year, only the best in the business were considered. The sum of money agreed upon would buy the services of more than the Fire House Five plus Two. Before the Duke, Ralph Marterie was on top for two years in a row. Obviously the trend has been toward the spectaculars.

I think the band selected should fit the budget. This is just a little more profound than it seems at first glance. Any Prom committee knows roughly how much it can afford for each item.

The Pumas always favor the prestige of the name bands. Getting the best means more to a small college such as ours than to a big institution (a certain South Bend outfit for one). We are just a bit shy on party life around here and the spring whing-ding ought to cap the social season.

Letting that be right where it is, the question of patronage can be dubbed in on the issue. The money has to come from somewhere but is it advisable to saddle overburdened parents with another request for a contribution? "Aye, there's the rub."

It is fine to have the feast with all the trimmings but should the parents be patrons? Yes! Patronage is really necessary for it supplies the margin between the red and the black ink. Very few parents could resent a direct appeal from a student source, the prom committee. The letters are courteous and are carefully worded and the touch is only a buck. The very fact that the Prom is a student function and is handled as such disposes patrons favorably toward the cause.

St. Joe's Junior Classes have done a good job in the past and the present one is improving on that record. As long as we continue this policy, I think the bands and the patronage are here to stay.

Conversation Piece

by Tom DeMint

There was some question as to whether Mother's Day would be a little too sentimental to write about. But why not take a new slant on this subject?

It might not be bad to look back just a moment on the multi-million things we can remember our Moms did for us—some of the little things like covering up for us when we broke the basement window with that foul ball. That one saved us from a licking for sure. Or maybe there was the time we wanted the car for a date or the world would come to an end—and the case looked hopeless. Mom did some persuasion though and we got the car.

Now we have a chance to pay a little extra attention to our Mothers. One day out of the year is set aside just to honor her. For what our Moms have done, this day ought to be a national holiday but so far the country fathers haven't gotten the word. Actually though, the little lady probably wouldn't appreciate such a big to-do as much as just the knowledge that we've remembered her. All the flags and banks closing down wouldn't take the place of a little consideration on our part.

Since most of us won't have the chance to get home for Mother's Day, we can still make it a perfect day by a phone call or a card. Mom has a habit of never complaining or asking for something but it's a sure bet that she'd be a mighty happy person to know that we're thinking about her on her special day.

NOTES ON RARE BIRDS

STUFF

Published bi-weekly during the school year, except during the calendar holidays of Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and mid-year examinations by students of St. Joseph's College. Entered as second class matter Sept. 20, 1937, at the Post Office in Collegeville, Ind., under Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription $1.00.

Member
Associated Collegiate Press
Catholic School Press Asso.

STAFF

Editor.....Dave Bauer
Sports Editor.....Dave Carey
Copy and Layout Editor.....Jerry Bosch, Greg Mahoney
Photographers.....Don Heezen, Clark Davoust
Business Managers.....Ron Jensen, Vic Palmer
Feature Writers.....Tom Mahoney, Jim O'Brien, Ray Malik, Jim McGowan, Tom DeMint
Sports Reporters.....Dick Bodney, Tom Uecker, Joe Gregorich, Tom Donahue
Reporters.....John Powers, Terry Bergin, Jim McCullough, Richard Flashing, Harry Allagrec, Ted Thomas
Moderator.....Fr. James Hinton, C.P.P.S.

STUFF—Thurs., May 9, 1957—Page 2

Ed Vrdolyak, Jack Cannon, Mike Goldrick, Greg Jancich, Willie Walters, Ed Kalata warm up together.

Pumas Win 2nd, Edge Lewis, 5-4 Suffer Worst Defeat at Ball State

by Dave Carey

Two walks in the tenth inning with the bases loaded gave St. Joe their second win of the season as they topped Lewis college, 5-4, May 5 on the Puma field.

The game was marked by errors on both sides—a total of 13. Greg Jancich took the victory, going all the way against Frank Karpowicz. Jancich struck out 13, walked only two, and allowed but four hits. Three of the four runs off him were unearned.

Walk Wins Game

Tom Deem opened the tenth with a scratch single off the first baseman's glove. Carl Kozlevcar, who had driven in two runs on a single to give the Pumas a 3-1 lead in the seventh, was safe on a bunt. Then Jancich blooped one over the shortstop's head to load the bases.

Bob Valencik attempted a squeeze, but Deem was thrown out at the plate. After Roger Redelman struck out, Ray Ramirez batted for Jack Byrnes and was hit by a pitched ball, forcing in the tying run. Tom Freehill, after a two-strike count, accepted four straight balls and that was the ball game.

Ball State Crushes Pumas

Karpowicz turned in a creditable performance, sending 11 Joemen down by the strikeout route and walking only three. The Pumas, however, lashed him for 11 hits.

St. Joe took its worst beating of the season on May 4 as Ball State's Cardinals drubbed the Pumas, 14-3, at Muncie. A parade of five St. Joe pitchers gave up nine hits and ten walks. Willie Walters, the starter and eventual loser, was knocked out in the second inning. He was followed by Ed Vrdolyak, Wayne Kassel, Ed Kalata, and Jack Cannon.

Gagliano Clouts Homer

The only bright spot on the Puma side was Jim Gagliano's lead-off home run in the first inning, the first round tripper of the season for St. Joe. The Pumas equaled the Cardinals' hit total of nine, but were not as successful in capitalizing on men on base.

The big plate man for Ball State was left fielder Earl Van Sickle, who went four-for-four, including a triple with the bases loaded and a home run.

Jancich Loses Heartbreaker To Valpo, 2-1

The top pitching duel of the season took place on the St. Joe diamond May 1, as the Pumas dropped a heartbreaking 2-1 contest to Valparaiso. Bob Lohse bested Greg Jancich in a double four-hit performance that had all the color of a typical pitchers' battle.

Both pitchers kept home place uncrossed for seven full innings. In the eighth, after retiring the first two batters, Jancich gave up successive singles to Glen Parrish and Dick Schroer. Gordy Helms then lofted a double into left-center that scored the decisive runs.

Up to the eighth, Lohse had been stingy with free passes, having walked only one, the first batter to face him. But in the Puma half of the eighth, he walked George Rickard. This blossomed into the lone Puma tally as Tom Freehill slammed a triple to deep left-center. He stayed on third as Jim Gagliano grounded to the second baseman to retire the side.

In addition to striking out 11 Valpo batters and walking only one, Jancich went six and two-thirds innings without allowing a hit before Gerry Twietmeyer lined a single into right field. Up to that

(Continued on page 4)

St. Joe Nine Starts Road Trip For Final 7 Games of Season

by Joe Gregorich

With the 1957 baseball season well under way, and with seemingly seasonal weather finally here, the St. Joseph baseball team will take to the road for the final seven games.

The first encounter will take place against Butler's Bulldogs at Indianapolis on Saturday, May 11. This doubleheader will probably make or break the Pumas' chances for an ICC title bid.

Wolfe Paces Butler Hitters

Bulldog coach Paul Hinkle will bring a team consisting of just four lettermen from last year's third-place ICC finishers. Butler, while compiling a 7-9 overall record in 1956, managed to split eight conference matches.

Among the Bulldog's lettermen are All-conference catcher Ken Seamon, pitchers Frank Huff and Gene Harvey, and outfielder Bob Wolfe. Huff, the workhorse of Butler's pitching corps, won two of three ICC decisions last season, while compiling a 1.46 earned run average. Hard-hitting Wolfe paced the conference in RBI's with nine, clubbed out a .322 batting average, and handled 28 chances without an error.

Pumas Hold Series Edge

If the weatherman cooperates, the St. Joe-Butler clash will be the first meeting since the two opponents split a doubleheader in 1954, four games being rained out since then. The Pumas hold a 9-5 edge on Butler in the all-time series.

The following Tuesday, May 14, the Pumas will invade Lafayette in hopes of avenging last year's defeat at the hands of the Purdue Boilermakers. In 1956, Purdue outslugged St. Joe 12-7 in a game marred by errors on both sides. The Boilermakers hold a big edge on the Pumas in the all-time series, winning seven times in eight meetings.

Valpo Rematch Next

On the next day, Wednesday May 15, St. Joe will travel to Valparaiso to duel the Crusaders in a rematch of the earlier 2-1 Puma loss. In addition to trying to improve the 7-17 all-time record against Valpo, St. Joe will be trying to end a five-game losing streak. The last Puma victory over the Crusaders was a 6-0 decision in 1954.

Valpo Hurlers Top ICC

The "Big Three" of Valpo's moundsmen include senior Bob Lohse, who outdueled Greg Jancich in the first meeting, junior Gerry Twietmeyer, and sophomore Dick Beumer. These three hurlers accounted for all of Valpo's eight ICC victories last season. Lohse was 2-0, with an 0.00 ERA in 15 innings; Twietmeyer was the ICC's winningest twirler with a 4-0 mark, and a 2.42 ERA in 30 innings; Beumer accounted for the other two wins, while compiling a 1.74 ERA in 21 innings. Included among Beumer's non-conference victories was a decision over Illinois.

On the hitting side of the picture, the Crusaders are led by senior captain Paul Naumann. While slugging out a .375 batting average in conference play, Naumann batted in five teammates and scored nine runs.

Other top hitters returning include catcher Gordie Helms, a .353 hitter who drove in both runs in Valpo's earlier victory over St. Joe, and third baseman Jerry Wachholz, who batted .383 in 1956.

Joemen Split 2 With Chi. Illini; Lose Opener

Greg Jancich's five-hit, 13-strikeout performance enabled the PPumas to emerge with their first baseball victory of the current campaign in the opener of a twin bill against Navy Pier on the St. Joe diamond Apr. 23.

The Joemen won the first game, 5-2, but dropped the nightcap, 7-1. Both games were seven-inning tilts.

Gagliano Gets 3-for-4

The hitting hero in the first game was third baseman Jim Gagliano, who went 3-for-4 in driving in three runs. He singled home John Walsh and Tom Freehill in the fourth inning with what proved to be the winning runs.

Jancich walked only one batter and twice struck out the side. Both runs off him were unearned.

PPumas Held To Three Hits

The Chicago Illini came back in the second game behind Larry Bergnach's three-hit job to register a 7-1 win. The Piemen banged out 11 hits and actually sewed up the game with a five-run second inning. St. Joe had taken a 1-0 lead in the first on Tom Deem's double which scored Bob Valencik.

Bergnach struck out 10 Puma batters in beating Jack Cannon, who was knocked out of the box after one out in the second. Willie Walters took over the relief chores from there.

Walters Goes Route

The Pumas dropped a close one to Central Michigan, 6-4, on Apr. 14 in what, after early season rain outs, was the St. Joe home opener. Willie Walters went all the way, giving up only three earned runs. Carl Kozlevcar's double that scored Walters in the fifth tied it up at 3-3, but the visitors came back with a run in the sixth and one in the eighth, the latter proving to be the winning marker.

Set Grid Slate For '57 Pumas

Xavier, N. W. Missouri State, St. Vincent's of Latrobe, Pa., and Eastern Michigan of Ypsilanti, Mich., plus the six conference games will constitute the 1957 football schedule, as follows:

Sept. 15—Xavier (Ohio)	T
21—N.W. Missouri State	H
28—DePauw*	T
Oct. 5—Butler*	H
13—St. Vincent's (Pa.)	T
19—Indiana State*	T
26—Valparaiso*	H
(Homecoming)
Nov. 2—Ball State*	T
9—Evansville*	H
*ICC Games
16—Eastern Michigan	H

INTRAMURAL SCOREBOARD

by Tom Uecker

St. Joseph's IM Track and Field Meet proved a great success, with much enthusiasm being shown by both participants and spectators alike. Forty-one students participated, and there were good crowds on hand each day to view the events. Two frosh cindermen, Joe McMullen (Gaspar) and Dick Crossley (Drexel), turned in triple victories for their respective halls. McMullen copped the 100 and 220 yard dashes along with the broad jump, while Crossley had a relatively easy time winning the 880, the mile and 2 mile runs. Here are point totals for the meet by halls:

Drexel	30½	E. Seifert	6
Gaspar	26	W. Seifert	6
Ad. Bldg.	14	Bennett	5½
Noll	9½	Dorm	1

After many postponements this year's ping-pong tournament finally concluded. Ron Dohr (Bennett) came out victorious in the singles, beating Jack Coombes (E. Seifert) in the finals. Dohr combined with Don Weishaar (Bennett) to win the doubles honors.

There haven't been enough softball games played yet to actually show any outstanding teams, but several teams in 12-inch play look as if they could be tough as the season goes on. Sixteen-inch scores have been very lopsided thus far. As the teams are weeded out, the scores should get closer. Finals in both tournaments will probably be played around May 16.

Varsity Views

by Tom Donahue

Last Saturday the St. Joe baseball team dropped their sixth game of the season to Ball State 14-5. Among other things the Joemen made seven errors and Ball State got 10 walks off six St. Joe pitchers. It is a pretty dismal outlook so far.

But from the criticism being handed out by some of the students one would be led to believe that the best ball players Coach Shemky has aren't in uniform. These are the fellows that talk a great game from the sidelines and constantly find fault in every decision Shemky makes and every play that a Puma player performs.

In the Valpo game the other day Kuzniar made a fine back hand stop on a ball hit to his right and threw the batter out. I heard a grand stand manager remark, "It's a good thing he didn't throw that one away. He hurried his throw too much!"

At the start of this season Shemky told all baseball candidates that he would field nine men who wanted to play the game. And that's what he's done. This team is predominantly Sophomore and Junior. They deserve a lot of credit for getting out there and playing. Sure they're taking their lumps now but they're improving in every game. Next season they will show it. Even if they don't set the ICC on fire next year, so what? These guys want to play ball and they want to win. They deserve your support, not your ridicule.

Scheduling football games is a funny business. Three years ago St. Joe could have had any number of out-of-conference games with larger schools, BUT NOT NOW! I for one am glad, but I'm not happy over the fact that they won't play us. It's hard to get a reputation as a good team because it's hard to get games with worthy enough opponents to prove yourself. St. Joe is now in that position.

LONG'S
Walgreen Agency
Drug Store

SAVE MONEY!
HAVE FUN!

Go Home by Train!

SEE HOW LITTLE IT COSTS WHEN YOU TRAVEL TOGETHER!

GROUP ECONOMY FARES are the money-saving answer if you're returning to summer school. Team up with two or more friends bound for your home town. Travel together both ways. On trips of 100 miles or more, you'll each save 25% of the regular round-trip coach fare.*

Or better still . . . COACH PARTY FARES! Round up 25 or more to travel long-distance together on the same homeward train. Then return singly or together for summer school or fall semester and you each save 28% of the regular round-trip fare.

IT'S FUN, TOO!

It's all pleasure . . . by train. No traffic delays. Walk around and talk to the gang. Refreshments or delicious meals en route. Plus the comfort and dependability all smart travelers insist upon.

*Except for local travel between New York-Washington and points east of Lancaster, Pa.

See your travel or ticket agent NOW! Ask about these big money-saving plans.

EASTERN RAILROADS

Glee Club Holds Banquet, Meets to Elect Officers

by Richard Flashing

After the concert in Hammond with the Glee club from St. Margaret's School of Nursing, April 27, the St. Joe glee club retired to the Jockey club in East Chicago, where they held a short business meeting at which Terry O'Hagan, a junior from Dearborn, Mich., was elected president of the club for the 1957-58 school year.

After the election was over, the meeting was adjourned, and the members held their annual glee club banquet. At the banquet glee club jackets were awarded to Jack Tobin, John DeLaurentis, and William Leonard. Several others, having completed five semesters with the glee club, were awarded keys.

Thursday, May 2, a second business meeting was held to elect men to the positions of vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Those elected were Donald Todd and John Christen respectively.

Last Friday the Singing Seventeen gave two concerts, one in the afternoon at a gathering of the Home Demonstration club in Rensselaer, and the other in the evening at the junior-senior banquet of DeMotte High School in DeMotte.

On Parents' day the Glee club presented a half-hour concert. After the concert Urban Thobe was awarded the Louis B. White Memorial Award by Fr. Gross, the president of St. Joseph's. The award is presented each year to the most outstanding member of the club, in memory of Louis B. White, former Glee club president, who was killed in a jet plane accident while in the service.

Next Tuesday the members of the glee club will sing in the Chase Hotel, St. Louis, Mo., a banquet sponsored by the officials and associates of Webster College. The glee club held a concert at Webster College previously this year, a result of which was this second invitation. The dinner will be followed by a social with the girls of Webster College. The next morning, before departure, the club will give a concert at Nerinx Hall High School in Webster Groves.

Wednesday evening the entire glee club will participate in the annual concert of the St. Francis College Glee Club in Joliet.

Parents Hold Card Party

The "May Daze" Card Party of the Father's and Mother's clubs of St. Joseph's college was held last Friday evening, May 3rd, in the Merchants and Manufacturers Club of the Merchandise Mart, Chicago.

This annual party is the highlight of the social season for the clubs. It represents the combined efforts of both to raise money for the College Development Fund.

The featured attraction of the evening was the drawing of this year's top raffle prize, a 1957 Ford. As a result of this particular fund-raising endeavor of the Parents clubs, major developments on the campus have become a reality in recent years. Among these are the remodeling and redecorating of Gaspar hall several years ago, the furnishing of student lounges in Noll and Bennett halls, the furnishing of the faculty lounge in the Administration building, and the installation of new loud-speaker systems in the chapel, fieldhouse, and auditorium.

Jancich Loses, 2-1

(Continued from page 3)

time the closest a Crusader came to getting a safety was in the fifth when Paul Naumann dribbled one to second baseman Freehill, who raced in and failed to make a clean pick-up. The official scorer ruled an error on the controversial play.

St. Joe Frosh Open Season With 2 Wins

St. Joseph's freshman baseball team whipped Indiana State's frosh in a twin bill, 7-4 and 10-3, May 3 at Terre Haute, in their season openers.

The Puma first-year men clubbed the Sycamores for 10 hits in the first game and nine in the nightcap. Left fielder Jim Mouthrop led the attack in the first game with three hits, while first baseman Al Laya duplicated the feat in the second.

Coach Tom Weber employed three pitchers in each game. Tom Ruhling, Dick Grothouse, and Bob Gallaher hurled in the opener, with Grothouse getting the win. In the second game, the pitchers were Cletus Wanderswell, Pete Simon, and Tom Geffert. Simon was the winner in the nightcap.

A three-run fifth inning gave the Pumas a 5-3 lead in the first game, a lead they never relinquished. In the second game, however, they wasted no time—a seven-run outburst in the first inning put them well out of reach for the remainder of the afternoon.

The St. Joe frosh will meet Valparaiso's freshmen diamond crew in a double header here Thursday, May 9.

SJ Track Team Runs in Meets

St. Joseph's varsity track team turned in respectable performances in their two outings of the season, taking second place in a three-way meet at Terre Haute, Apr. 24, and losing to Chicago Illini's trackmen, 84 to 38.

Indiana State won the three-way meet held at the Rose Polytechnic Institute track with a total of 91 points. St. Joseph's finished second with 30, bettering Evansville's 25.

St. Joe won three events in this meet. Tom Page and Jack Wolf took first and second, respectively, in both hurdles. Page's time was 16.7 seconds in the 120-yard high hurdles and 27 seconds in the 220-yard low hurdles. Ray Banary won the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet, 8 inches.

In the meet against Navy Pier held in Eckersall stadium in Chicago, May 4, St. Joseph's won two events. Ray Banary once again won the broad jump and Bobby Williams took high jump honors.

Vets Choose New Officers

John Bian won the grand prize of an expense paid prom weekend at the Veterans Club bingo on April 25. The value of the prize was $30.50, and included the bid, the Revels ticket, the tux, and the girl's meals and room.

New officers were chosen at the final Vets Club meeting of the school year, on April 29. The new Commander is Bill Walsh, a junior from Chicago. The other officers are Vic Bortolomi, Vice-Commander; Pat Ward, Adjutant (secretary); Don Cebulski, Sergeant-at-Arms (treasurer). All are from Chicago. The outgoing officers are Ted Thomas, Jim Thureson, Phil McCarthy, and Bob Skorupa.

The Veterans Club, which represents nearly 100 St. Joe veterans, sponsored a variety of activities during this school year. These included the color guard at Homecoming; the blood bank, which had been continued from last year in cooperation with the Jasper County Hospital; and the annual banquet at Hazelden Country Club in Brook, where Coach Bob Jaaron was the guest of honor. Other activities included the showing of several motion pictures, including the Chicago Bears' "Highlights of 1955," participation in intramurals, two veterans mixers with girls from Mundelein and St. Mary's-of-the-Woods, and two bingos.

Ted Thomas, the present Commander has officially terminated club activities for this school year, as Vets Club members, along with other St. Joe men, turn their thoughts to comps and final exams.

CARL and LES'

Barber Shop

FENDIG'S
REXALL
Drug Store

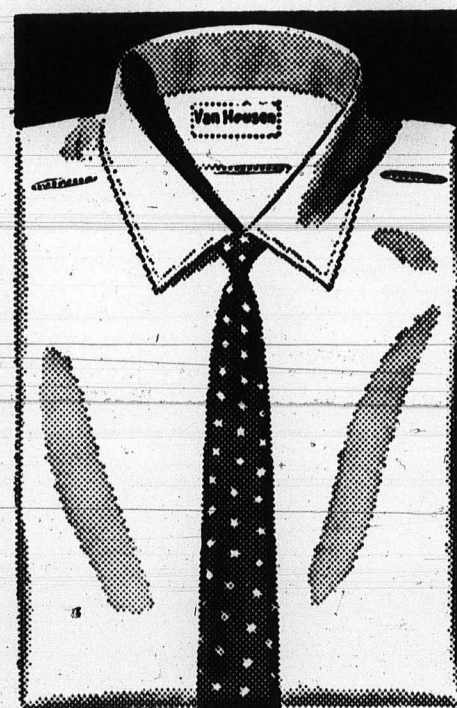

HOTEL
HOOSIER INN

Good Clean Beds

CLYDE BYERS

Ph. 41 On Route 114

KANNE'S
Restaurant
and
Tap Room
Fine Food
and Beverages

VAN CRAIG

Van Heusen's gracefully designed moderate point, modified spread collar. It's equally distinctive with suits or sportcoats. $4.00

MURRAY'S

Model Railroaders Attend N.M.R.A. Convention

On Saturday, April 27, the members of the San Jose Railway system went to the National Model Railroaders Convention of the Midwest Region, to take part in the declaration that "scale model railroading is for men and not just for boys."

Upon arrival at the convention headquarters in the Student Union building of Purdue university, the club members saw the 6 x 15 layout, well detailed and superbly operated by a group of men from the Naval Ordinance Personal of Indianapolis. This group, in uniformed shirts, was very impressive.

Joe Bak and Ed Stapleton displayed the maneuverability of some of their equipment on Purdue's layout. Several of the National Model Railroaders Assn. members present were quite impressed. After taking in a few of the clinics and the auction of model railroad equipment, the club members returned to campus in the station wagon borrowed from Felder Buick and Chevrolet sales of Rensselaer.

While the club was returning to its own functions, Bill Angus, a member of the N.M.O.A., announced at the convention banquet that the "San Jose Railway," only 50 miles north of Indianapolis, has invited any of the N.M.R.A. members to stop by on their way home if they were going that way. As a result, 33 of these men were here between 1:00 and 7:30 p.m. the next day.

A few of the comments heard were:

David Shore, Chicago: "I like your visitor area."

Tiny (6'10") Reid, Chicago: "That branch line engine house is the most."

Roger Kemer, Wauwatow, Wis.: "Your trackwork is smooth and really functional."

C. A. Parsonis, Milwaukee: "When will I get to see six trains going on this new section?"

These men were lawyers, doctors, a teacher of science, business men, retired executives, and even a Valpo student who plans to visit the club again.

All in all, the trip to the convention was a shot in the arm for the college and the club members.

Graduate

IN STYLE

For the once-in-a-lifetime occasion of graduation, we suggest a Style-Mart suit, the all time favorite of young men everywhere. The reason is plain — Style-Mart has the preferred trim, slim styling and the newest patterns. It's a suit that will continue to serve you, handsomely, for long after graduation — so, come in today while selections are complete.

Style-Mart Suits $39.95 to $60

See our Saxony Hall 2-Pants Suits. Summer weight Dacron and Rayon. One pair matching Slacks. One pair Contrasting Slacks.

Only $39.95

HEY FELLOWS SAVE 10%
on your cleaning and laundry
CAMPUS REPRESENTATIVES

Washburn—Pete Ardini
Drexel—Maurice O'Connor
Gaspar & Dorm—Chuck Gaul
Merlini & Ad Bldg.—Larry Wozniak
E & W Seifert—Ron Weiland
Noll—Kevin Hensley
Bennett, White House & Scharf House—Tom Weber

Superior Drive in
CLEANERS...
LAUNDERERS...
RENSSELAER INDIANA